cries of a servant's heart

encounter a space of grace do you have the heart cries of a servant?

for each of the 8 areas below place a mark on the scale that best describes the condition of your heart. ask God to help you have a heart like Christ, that finds delight in being humble and serving. Matthew 12:18-21

1	I am driven to look for ways to serve others.	I serve if it is easy and safe.	I look for others to serve me.
2	I find real joy in serving others.	I serve because I have to & feel guilty if I don't	I despise serving and avoid it.
3	I put my pursuits second to pleasing God.	I'm not sure what it means to please God.	I look to please myself first.
4	I see my desires changing to become more like God's desires.	I give in to my desires more than to God's desires in my life.	I'm really not interested in what God or anyone else wants. I want my way.
5	I have deep compassion for those who are taken advantage of and do something to help them.	I have a hard time having compassion for others	I take advantage of others.
6	I let go of my rights and expectations for the sake of others.	I am easily frustrated when things don't go like I want.	I expect others to do what I want and let them know it.
7	I am patient, understanding, and forgiving when others fail.	I want forgiveness more than I give forgiveness.	I lose my temper and cut people off who don't treat me right.
8	others trust me and seek me out when they need help and hope.	I am too busy to help others.	People know not to turn to me with their problems.
